

Guidelines for Educational visits

Young people derive considerable benefit from taking part in educational visits. In particular, they have opportunities to participate in activities and gain from experiences not available in the normal classroom or youth setting. Such educational visits help young people to develop a wide range of valuable personal and social skills.

If you can clearly demonstrate an educational benefit then do please apply. The list below has been provided as a guide and is not exhaustive.

National Maritime Museum	Tower of London
Centre of the Cell	British Museum
Imperial War Museum	Museum of London
Visits to Castles/Parks	HMS Belfast
Museum of London Docklands	Victoria and Albert Museum
IKEA Design Museum	London Transport Museum
Theatre trips/ plays if part of school curriculum	Natural History Museum
Charles Dickens Museum	Sports museums
Sea Life Centre	Tate and Tate Modern
Science Museum	Charles Darwin House
Tower Bridge Exhibition	Tour of House of Commons/Lords
London Film Museum	City Farms
Zoo visit	UK Residential Trips
University Visits

Examples of trips we will NOT fund:

Pleasure parks, Funfairs, Theme Parks, Circus, Concerts, Cinema, Seaside, Overseas.